About the workshop: Back by popular demand! Chuck Loring returns to Brevard to share his expertise and help you build the capacity of your board/your organization. During this interactive day, you'll learn from Chuck and your peers and gain knowledge of the major building blocks of an effective board. Areas of discussion include:

- How to identify, recruit and orient board members
  - Board roles and responsibilities
  - Effective board structure
- The board's role in fundraising

Bring your board members and leadership team to this day-long seminar and catch some of Chuck Loring's enthusiasm for excellence in board governance and fundraising.
