

Mario Busacca
Certified Facilitator
KeyStone Strategies

Mr. Mario Busacca is certified facilitator for the Franklin Covey course 7 Habits of Highly Effective People and the 7 Habits Maximizer. Since his certification in 1998, he has trained over 1500 people in various organizations including the federal government, teachers of the Brevard County school system, Brevard County Government employees and corporate clients. In this capacity he has developed targeted delivery of these materials in both abbreviated and expanded formats.

In addition, Mr. Busacca is skilled in group facilitation and team building techniques. He has developed facilitation programs for government and corporate clients and well as non-profit organizations. Mr. Busacca uses a variety of techniques including: theater improvisation, hands-on ropes style courses, self assessment tools and group interaction techniques to enhance learning in group settings. His clients include Leadership Brevard, Parrish Medical Center, the Brevard Alzheimer's Foundation, Brevard County Government and the Brevard Police Training Center.

Mr. Busacca has held positions in both industry and the Federal government over the course of his career and has managed large and small teams. In 2003, he formed a company; KeyStone Strategies to provide these services to organizations that seek better solutions for leadership and group interactions.
