

About Linda Cobb

Linda 'Coach Cobb' has over 20 years' experience as an executive coach, trainer, and leadership consultant. She has coached hundreds of leaders in all types of businesses and has trained thousands in her various behavior change programs.

Linda owned businesses in sports marketing and weight management prior to becoming a personnel psychologist, graduate of CoachU, The Arbinger Institute Coaching Mastery Program, and a Registered Corporate Coach. Her certifications include NeuroLinguistic Programming (NLP), Advanced Trauma debriefing, as well as various assessments used for self-discovery, talent selection, and leadership development. She opened her coaching practice in Brevard County in 1997.

Linda offers leadership coaching for executives, leadership teams, and entrepreneurs, as well as assessments, facilitation, and seminars. She has applied her approach successfully through executive and corporate coaching, management training, consulting, and trauma debriefing.

Today, Linda focuses her coaching practice solely on leaders and their teams and believes that enlightened leaders are an untapped force for good in the world.
